Volume Contents

Editorial 1

The needs of family members of patients in intensive care units 4
Margaret A. Coulter

Families in ICU: their needs and anxiety levels 11
Louise Chartier and Ginette Coutu-Wakulczyk

Road to recovery 19
Lianne Daniels, Angela Rose, Elizabeth Wall and Colin Rees

Post-registration nursing courses – one way forward 25
David White and Suzie Burford

Extended body image in the ventilated patient 31
Sally Ann Smith

Dying and bereavement
The role of the critical care nurse 39
Michael Farrell

BOOK REVIEWS 46

NOTICES 47

Editorial 49

Notices 51

Effect on counselling on anxiety and depression in coronary patients 52
David R. Thompson and Rosemary A. Webster

Problems and nursing management strategies related to Respiratory Distress Syndrome in the very preterm baby 55
M. B. Carter

A review on the literature relating to touch and its use in intensive care 65
Ann Ingham

ICU in the United Kingdom: Report from the King's Fund Panel 76

Effective management of urinary drainage systems in critical care areas 82
Elaine Hough

The bridge beyond: strengthening nursing practice in attitudes towards death, dying, and the terminally ill, and helping the spouses of critically ill patients 88
James W. Youll

NEWSLETTER 95

Editorial 99

What the patients say 101
Janet V. Heath

Saving money with effective in-line filters 109
Christian Strömberg and Johan Wahlgren

Nurse's accounts of nursing the terminally ill on a coronary care unit 114
David Field

Parents of critically ill children have their need too! A literature review 123
Michael Farrell

Kegworth: and ICU experience 129
Teresa Harris

Stress in high dependency units 134
F. C. Biley

BOOK REVIEWS 142

Editorial 145

The nursing assessment of the patient with cardiac pain on the coronary care unit 147
Carolyn Thompson

Children's human needs in intensive care 155
Riitta Oksala and Jaana Merenmies

A study into the views of intensive care nurses on the psychological needs of their patients 159
Christopher Turnock

Effects of tracheal suctioning on neonates: a review of the literature 167
David R. Shorton

A study of the teaching of nursing research using the project method to post basic registered nurses on ENB Course 100 (General intensive care nursing for RGN) 171
Helen F. Stanley

BOOK REVIEWS 175

NOTICES 176

SUBJECT INDEX 177

AUTHOR INDEX 179